

Employment & Inclusion Conference 2026: The Power of Expectations

March 24, 2026

1:30 PM

Breakout Session C-3

How To Create a Level Playing Field: Accommodations under the ADA

This session will focus on Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act and discuss what is a reasonable accommodation, how to ask for one, and navigating barriers. We will also discuss resources to help identify reasonable accommodations that will fit your client's needs.

Mary Anne Davies
Attorney
Disability Law Center

Mary Anne Davies is an attorney with the Disability Law Center. She earned her Master of Public Administration from the University of Utah and her law degree from Loyola Law School in Los Angeles. Her legal practice has focused on individual litigation of disability-based employment discrimination, systemic litigation and advocacy to ensure people with disabilities are able to live, work, and receive services in integrated community settings.

Emma Eccles Jones College of Education & Human Services
Institute for Disability Research, Policy & Practice
UtahStateUniversity.